Principal Consultant & Executive Coach

Sukh Mishraa is an ardent believer in the unlimited human potential to learn and grow. That's why it is always her starting point when she works with the clients who are External and Internal Coaches and People Practitioners such as HR and L&D professionals, Business Leaders inspiring their teams, Professionals supporting Adults learn better, faster with their own World view.

She creates a safe space for my clients to be vulnerable, to be confused, stuck, daring and aspirational, uncertain, so they reflect deeply, feel inspired and courageous to explore different perspectives to go back to do their best work with their clients. She serves as a Reflective Partner by being present and being a mirror to reflect the parallel processes and observations most useful to the clients.

Her work involves providing Coach Supervision to enhance the capacity and capability of coaches: Being a Certified Coach Supervisor, she is trained and experienced in using supervision models and methods to help coaches discover, "How are they showing up as a coach". Coaches completing supervision hours can also use their time invested in themselves towards CCEUs also for ICF re-credentialing process.

Mentor coaching for ICF Core competencies and Skills to meet the ICF credentialing requirements. She is an ICF Registered Mentor Coach and have been mentoring coaches for their ACC & PCC credentialing journey. She has a 100% success rate with coaches receiving credentials and clearing CKA. She is also the Creator and Mentor Coach for the ICF Coach Credentialing program, "Coaching for Leading thro Change". Coaching individuals one on one who are ready to commit meaningfully to their Bold Vision. She is currently enjoying my journey to the next level of coaching credential, Master Certified Coach, MCC.
