

PARINEETA MEHRA-PROFILE SYNOPSIS

About

Parineeta Mehra is an Executive coach and Facilitator with leadership experience in Global financial services & Retail, including positions in Sales, Customer Service, Business Administration and Training. She led a corporate-wide culture transformation initiative for a BFSI company – a pivotal experience which ignited her passion for helping Organizations grow towards tapping their unlimited potential optimally.

As an executive coach and facilitator, she has worked with Organizations/Institutions in areas of leadership development and personal reconstruct programs for middle & senior managers, at Leadership levels. Her experience enables her to relate to the issues and challenges faced by her clients at their own level, and to help expand their perspectives while by guiding them through a process of self-discovery, making conscious choices and taking required actions for desired outcomes.

She has worked with executives across the education, financial, health, retail and technology industries. She inspires leaders to build awareness of impact they have on others, helps them create the results they want and build lasting business relationships. She has coached leaders of all levels, from high potentials to executives, being sure to listens in closely to them-her clients and asks powerful questions before choosing an approach to best meet her client's needs.
